

The Town Crier

Goings-on from Frosthaven and beyond

Miraculous Escape: Mercenaries Survive Deadly Avalanche

The latest group of mercenaries, "Zoey's Minions", sent by the Merchant's Guild to help the town embarked on a mission to scale Snowscorn peak and stop the Snowspeaker ritual. However, disaster struck as the group was consumed by an avalanche, burying them deep beneath the snow. The party fought valiantly against the harsh conditions and the creatures of the ice, struggling to escape the icy tomb.

GROUP TRAPPED FOR THE SECOND TIME IN A WEEK

In a stunning turn of events, Zoey's Minions survived after falling into a deep pit when the ground suddenly gave way beneath them. After finding a way out, the party left behind a treasure, unwilling to risk their life for it.

Visiting Trader
was spotted selling a variety of items from his carriage

Fishing Expedition Attacked by Abaeli in Deep Bay.

The Abaeli attacked nearby buildings, after alleging that the fishing was in violation of the Deep Bay Treaty but the fisherman were able to fend off the attacks with the help of Zoey's Minions